

Sell for a Cause™

Compassion Through Real Estate

Major General Leroy Sisco is currently retired from the military after completing a forty-two year career. During his career he commanded the TXSG and was deputy commander of the 49th Armored Division and assistant adjutant General M-Day. He graduated with a Bachelor of Science Degree in 1967 from Abilene Christian University, but joined the Texas Army National Guard, Company C-142 Infantry 36th Division, in April of 1961. During his first three years as an enlisted soldier he rose to the rank of E-5 and was selected to attend OCS. He graduated and was commissioned in June of 1965. General Sisco's military experience spans command positions from company to Deputy Commander 49th Armored Division and Commander of the TXSG.

His commands included the 231st Engineer Company, the 386th Engineer Battalion, and 111th Area Support Group which required a lot of his time in Germany working the 21st TAACOM. He has served in a variety of joint and combined assignments that included major staff positions with the 71st troop command. In his civilian career he is the CEO and President of Military Warriors Support Foundation. He also is the past CEO of Texas Trophy Hunters Association and is an owner and currently serves on the board of this nation wide company. Prior to that General Sisco was a Vice President and one of the owners of a bank software Computer Company called Bancsource. Their customer base included over 2000 banks across the United States. General Sisco served on the National Guard Association of Texas Board for six years and five of those years he served on the executive board. He held various offices during this time and was President in 1996. This organization has over 46,000 members. In his business and private community activities, he has received many awards for his support, performance and dedication. He has an honorary doctorate of military arts and science from TMA. He has also been made the honorary President of the Republic of the Rio Grande by the city of Laredo, Texas. Additionally, Abilene Christian University honored him with Distinguished Alumni of the year Citation. The State of Texas has honored him twice with a joint resolution on the House floor from the Senate and House for his duty and dedication to the State of Texas and his Country.

General Sisco's awards include, Legion of Merit, Meritorious Service Medal, Army Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Medal, Lone Star Distinguished Service Medal, Adjutant Generals Individual Award, Texas Outstanding Service Medal, Army Reserve Components Achievements Medal (4th Award), National Defense Medal, Reserve Components Achievement Medal (4th Award), Reserve Service Medal (2nd Award), Army Service Ribbons, and Engineer Regimental Affiliation Badge. The National Infantryman's Association has honored him with the Martyrdom of St. Maurice award at the highest level of Primicerius. The Adjutant General of Texas honored him with the Order of the Iron Cross Award. Governor Rick Perry honored him by making him an Admiral in the Texas Navy.

7800 IH10 West, Suite 130, San Antonio, TX 78230
 Phone: 210-828-9900 · Fax: 210-568-1555
 Website: www.sellforacause.org

- Our Approved Non-Profits
-  Big Brothers Big Sisters
 -  Children's Association for Maximum Potential
 -  boysville
 -  THE CHILDREN'S BEREAVEMENT CENTER OF SOUTH TEXAS
 -  BIRTHRIGHT, INC.
 -  The Child Guidance Center of San Antonio
 -  100th CENTENNIAL 2003
FAMILY SERVICE ASSOCIATION
 -  Guadalupe Community Center
 -  KINETIC KIDS
Sports and Recreation For All Abilities
 -  HMC HEALY-MURPHY CENTER
 -  The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society
TEAM IN TRAINING
 -  Medina Children's Home
Linking Hearts Together Since 1958
 -  10th SAN ANTONIO CHILDREN'S MUSEUM
where kids play to learn and adults learn to play!
 -  SAN ANTONIO ACADEMY
 -  The Children's Shelter
Creating Brighter Futures
 -  Communities In Schools